The third annual fair is in progress at Chesterfield this week.

The hunting season opens up in this state November 16th.

More grain is being sown this year than ever before. Next fall the people will be glad cotton was low this year.

Mr. A. F. Funderburk has been elected manager of Pageland Insurance and Realty Company to succeed Mr. H. N. Askins, who recently purchased an interest in Carolina Supply company.

One of the traders asks us to say that they want to make next Saturday the best trade day yet in the lot near Threat's shop. You are asked to bring anything you have to trade or sell.

Mr. C. M. Gregory has resigned his position as policeman here and has accepted a similar position at a larger salary at Kershaw, to which place he moved his family last week. Mr. J. H. Whitmore has been appointed policeman here.

The rural carriers have been given another small raise in salary where the weight and number of pieces of mail justify such action. Carrier on Route one was raised from $1,104 to $1,116; Route two from $1,100 to $1,112; Route three from $900 to $934. Carrier on Route one from Monroe was raised from $1,152 to $1,200.

Fire destroyed the residence of Mr. Bud Williams in Buford township last Friday morning, together with all the household goods, a cotton house, a bale of seed cotton and several bushels of cotton seed. There was no insurance. The fire started overhead in a small bedroom built to the house, and it is supposed that rats and matches started the blaze.

The second attraction of the lyceum course will be given in the school auditorium Wednesday night, November, 18th. Those who attended the first entertainment in October remember the splendid attraction given by the Potters, and the second promises to be even better. This one will be by Mrs. Chilton, of Oklahoma, and those who attend will not regret it. Remember the date is November 18th.

Mr. W. L. Marze caught a bluish, red-eyed bird last week and brought it to town for the folks to gaze at. Mr. C. W. Porter, Jr. bought the bird and carried it home. It was smaller than a crow, had a short tail, white beak, red eyes and green feet, with narrow webbs on the toes. Some said it was a raven, others a coot and still others had never seen anything like it. After looking at the bird and the New International we call it a coot. Mr. I. P. Simpson says Mr. Joe Demby caught the same bird and kept it about a week and turned it loose.

Mr. Levy Sowell, an aged citizen of Jefferson, was cut about the throat with a butcher knife in the hands of Pleas Henry, a tenant on Mr. Sowell's farm 2 1/2 miles from Jefferson, Monday morning. Mr. Sowell claims that Henry had made way with some cotton made on his place, and when he went to his place Monday words were passed and Henry attacked him with the knife he was butchering a hog with, and inflicted a very dangerous wound about the collar bone. He was arrested and lodged in jail to await the outcome of Mr. Sowell's wounds. Mr. Sowell has been in a very critical condition, but it is believed that he will recover if no further complications arise.

The county chain gang has been moved from the lower part of the county to the Jefferson road about half way from Jefferson to Mr. R. H. Garland's where work has begun. The two miles back to Jefferson will be worked first, after which the gang will work toward Pageland. Supervisor King proposes to put this road in good shape before the gang is moved away. This is one of the main roads of the county and it is in very bad condition. We are glad to see work begin on this stretch of road.

Mr. T. A. Funderburk came up to Pageland a few weeks ago and returned to Cheraw in the afternoon. The train was delayed here and he had a 30-minute wait at the station. The Cheraw Chronicle said he was in such a hurry to get back where there was something going on that he went to the station ahead of time. Last week Mr. Funderburk came up again to transact a little business requiring an hour or two, and he just stayed right on until he had to go home, and then he looked like he had rather take a whipping than go back. The boom in Cheraw's business must have past again.

Russians Pushing Forward

London, Nov. 7.—9:20 p. m.—Except for the fall of Tsing-Tau the most significant reports from any of the battle fronts today—and the most welcome to the Allies—is that the Russians, besides driving the Austrians back in Galicia, have reached the Warthe River in Russian Poland and have established themselves on the East Prussian frontier.

A Berlin official reports says some Russian cavalry crossed the Warthe but were driven back. To this the Russian report adds that the town of Warta on the Warthe River in Poland has been occupied and that a German column has proceeded westward near the Silesian frontier.

The Russians too, are responsible for the report that they have defeated the Germans near Mlawa, in Poland, just across the East Prussian boundary and at Lyck, in East Prussia.

Military observers here say the Russians have followed the retiring Germans at a much faster pace than was anticipated and that if they are in force they may prevent the Germans from taking up their new positions on the Warthe and compel them to fall back to the Silesian border.

CHURCH NOTES

Methodist Protestant
By. Jno. W. Quick, Pastor

Our fourth and last quarterly conference for the conference year will be held with Rose Hill church next Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It is very important that all official members be present, "It's your duty."

We leave next Tuesday morning for Asheville, the seat of our annual conference. We would be glad to go before the conference with a clean sheet, all claims paid. We are known by our fruits.

Our appointment for next Sunday will be at Rose Hill at 11 o'clock. This will be our last appointment for the year.

Have I made it pleasant for you?

Have you made it pleasant for me?

Have I done my duty?

Have you done your duty?

Can I say well done?

Can you say well done?

Will God say well done?

"What lack I yet," Matt. 19:20.

Methodist Episcopal

Rev. J. A. McGraw, Pastor

Rev. W. A. Massebeau will preach in the Methodist church Thursday evening at 7:15 o'clock. The fourth quarterly conference for the Pageland circuit will be held Thursday about 12 o'clock in the Pageland Methodist church.

Who?

Cheraw Chronicle
The trouble at the McDonald house last Saturday night turned out to be only a little drunken fight. It was at first thought a murder had been committed. Arrests were made and the suspected parties were taken to jail. Sunday morning the supposed corpse came back to the boarding house.

For The Fall Trade

Realizing the low price of cotton and the general financial depression we have made the following reductions:

Ladies long black coats worth $7.50 reduced to $5.00.

Big lot worth $5.00 reduced to $3.00.

Lot of ladies coats and jackets 75c up.

A few nice coatsuits at cost.

Lot of boys overcoats at $2.00 each.

Mens overcoats all greatly reduced in price. Our shoe line embraces everything from the little baby moccasin to as large as is made. We have the largest line of mens and boys suits and pants ever shown in Pageland. These were struck deep with the price cutting knife.

You will find every item of our immense stock reduced to the limit. We invite you to inspect our stock and if we fail to interest you we will not take up much of your time and will not think hard of you in the least. We guarantee satisfaction.
